Introduction

From the Greco-Roman period to today, the great capitals of Europe have been the center of different artistic styles. From the Coliseum in Rome, to the Sagrada Familia in Barcelona, to the Eiffel Tower in Paris, the development of Western Art has been concentrated in Europe. Leading European museums, such as the Louvre, the Pinacoteca di Brera in Milan, or the Vatican museums, have amassed over the centuries the most impressive collections of paintings and sculptures.

Course Description

This course provides an overview of ancient sites and the pictorial traditions that developed in different countries of Europe. Paintings, sculptures, buildings, and urban planning will be analyzed from a historic and social point of view. Students will consider the circumstances that helped develop different styles in art and architecture in Europe in general, and in Spain, France, Italy, and Greece in particular. A broad range of subjects will be covered, including the study of Roman antiquity and Gothic cathedrals, the ideas that propelled the creative period in Florence and Rome during the Renaissance, the analysis of important artistic movements such as Romanticism, Impressionism, Post-Impressionism, and Surrealism, and the importance of artists such as Matisse and Picasso.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Recognize different artistic styles
2. Understand the circumstances that helped to develop these styles
3. Become familiar with names and places related to art history and architecture
4. Identify characteristics of Greco-Roman art and architecture
5. Appreciate the work of the leading Catalan architects
6. Develop an understanding of the importance of the Renaissance in Europe
7. Appreciate the oeuvre of renowned artists like Goya, Miro, Renoir, Leonardo, and more
Course Requirements

The course requires active student participation. Students are expected to read the required materials before every class. There will be a midterm exam, a final exam, three analytical essays, and a final PowerPoint presentation.
